

Be assured that we would welcome supplemental channels as a part of HD Radio. We will be living in a much richer audio environment due to satellite radio and other developing technologies. We see our supplemental channel providing this large rural region with long-form public hearings and related listener interactive programs.